Pacific Northwest Chapter Annual Meeting 2021

When: October 26th-28th, 2021

Where: Per Centers for Disease and Control guidance on large gatherings (as of 8/10/2021), this year's event will now be organized as a virtual event hosted on the Zoom platform.

*more details to follow

You are invited to submit an abstract for an individual presentation or roundtable discussion during our 2021 meeting. Presentations should inform our understanding and management of aquatic ecosystems in the Pacific Northwest. We are currently planning sessions which could include:

- Macroinvertebrates, Algae and Bioassessment
- Urban Waters
- Freshwater Mussels
- River Fragmentation and Connectivity
- Climate Change.

Please send abstracts (<200 words) as a .docx file to Jessie Doyle at jdoyle@csumb.edu no later than September 23rd, 2021. Abstract submissions should include name, affiliation, and abstract body. We hope to select and notify authors by September 30th, 2021.

NEW This year we will be putting together our first meeting proceedings. To submit to the proceedings please bring a manuscript of your presentation results to the meeting on October 26th. Submissions will be reviewed and revised within two months of the conference for website publication. All submissions are welcomed even those with working projects or with just initial results.

Want to help us raise money for future student and BIPOC member scholarships? Please consider donating to this year's online silent auction! Fill out this google form before September 17th, 2021!
