

Society for Freshwater Science Pacific Northwest Chapter Annual Meeting 2025 Student Assistance Award Application

The Society for Freshwater Science Pacific Northwest chapter is working to build a diverse and inclusive community of scientists. To help provide students with access to networking and training opportunities in their field, a limited number of awards are available to undergraduate or graduate students to cover conference registration and lodging. Preference will be given to students from underrepresented communities (e.g., BIPOC, LGBTQ2SAI+, 1st generation to attend college, veterans, etc.), but all applications will be considered.

Submit your completed application to Dave Wooster (david.wooster@oregonstate.edu) by September 1st, 2025.

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must be:

- A current graduate or undergraduate student in a field related to freshwater science.
- Willing to give an oral or poster presentation on their research at the 2025 SFS PNW annual meeting in Boise, ID.
- Unable to attend the meeting without assistance from SFS PNW. Award covers hotel 2 nights ($167/night + taxes) and conference registration ($25). Student is responsible for their food and transportation.
